How will your studies be funded?

--

Describe your academic background. What degrees do you hold? If you have previously studied theology, detail courses taken, with grades, if possible. (Attaching a full, official transcript of theological work would be best.)

--

Outline your goals for your study at Westfield House (e.g., one year of enrichment study, full pastoral training, Bachelor of Theology degree, etc.)

--

References: a reference will normally be requested from your pastor and bishop. Please give the name and address of an academic referee—this will normally be the head or principal of the last educational institution you attended:

--

At what date do you hope to begin your study at Westfield House?
